1025 Burwell Street • Bremerton, Washington 98337 • (360) 473-5231

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 14, 2013

On 11/14/13 at 0736 hours the Bremerton Police Department was dispatched to Harrison Medical Center, Bremerton, for a report of a bomb in a vehicle parked in front of the emergency room entrance.

Officers arrived and discovered a vehicle parked in front of the Emergency Room. Officers observed an object that looked like an improvised explosive device. With the assistance of Harrison Medical Center staff, officers immediately established a safe zone around the vehicle and requested the assistance of the Washington State Patrol Bomb Squad.

The bomb squad arrived on scene and removed the device.

A 43 year old Poulsbo woman was taken into custody at Harrison Medical Center for possession of an explosive device. She will be booked into the KCSO jail on $100,000 bail.

During the investigation it was learned that there may be additional devices located in the woman's home, located in the 1800 block of Lincoln Ave Poulsbo WA. We contacted the Poulsbo Police Department.

The Poulsbo Police Department responded to the 1800 block of Lincoln Ave and established a safe zone around the women's home. During this process they evacuated an unknown number of residences.

The Washington State Patrol Bomb Squad has been notified and is currently en route to the Poulsbo address to look for additional devices.

Additional media inquiries should be directed to the Poulsbo Police Department at (360) 779-3113
