Arrest Warrant Issued for Bank Robbery Suspect; Public's Assistance Sought

Following an extensive investigation by the Bremerton Police Department as well as the F.B.I., a Kitsap County Court has issued an arrest warrant for the suspect in two bank robberies occurring in our City on Monday. A warrant for felony Bank Robbery has been issued for 29 year old Cole Riley Satran, whose last known address is in West Bremerton. He is 6'2", 185 lbs., brown hair and brown eyes. Two recent photographs are shown below.

The robberies occurred at the East Bremerton Key Bank and the West Bremerton US Bank late Monday afternoon. The department has developed enough information to obtain the arrest warrant, which is attached. Bail has been set at $500,000.

Satran is possibly driving a black 1990 Infiniti Q45, Washington license ALW9872. A photo of a car similar to this type is attached.

Anyone with information on Satran or the car is encouraged to call the Bremerton Police Department at 360-473-5973.

"We believe Satran has robbed two banks and implied the threat of violence both times, and we would like to get him in custody before anyone gets hurt," said Bremerton Police Chief Steve Strachan.
