Bremerton Police Seek Suspect in Felony Assault Involving a Handgun

The Bremerton Police Department is seeking information to locate and arrest Willie J. Carter, age 29, for probable cause for felony assault in the first degree, felony domestic violence, and burglary. Carter was reported to be armed with a handgun at the time of the incident, earlier this evening in Bremerton. After fleeing the area on foot, Bremerton officers and a Kitsap County Sheriff's Dept. K-9 team attempted to track Carter, but he was not located. Carter also has felony arrest warrants from Pierce County for felony assault, robbery and unlawful possession of a firearm. Carter is a black male, 5'11", 150 lbs., brown hair and brown eyes, with numerous tattoos on his neck, arms and hands. He was last reported wearing a blue hooded sweatshirt, black pants, and armed with a revolver style handgun. He was last seen walking eastbound from the 100 block of Sheridan Road. He is originally from Tacoma.

Carter should be considered armed and dangerous. Call 911 with any information.
