WAYZGOOSE KITSAP 2019
Labor Day Weekend-August 31, Sept 1
The first known Wayzgoose, thrown in 1681, was a boozy summer feast hosted by a Letterpress Printer for his Print Shop employees. The printing community embraced this annual tradition, often sharing a harvest goose...hence the name, Wayzgoose. Today, the Wayzgoose has been reimagined as a public art festival. At Wayzgoose Kitsap, 24 plus local artists will print hand-carved linocut blocks with 2 full-size steamrollers! The best part of watching is the reveal of the print after the steamroller drives over it. There will be arts booths, food, and music.

BREMERTON COMMUNITY PARTNERS MARKET

Evergreen Rotary Park
Thursdays, 4-7 PM
(No market July 4th)

A fabulously welcoming and bustling market tucked among the trees and beside the sea at Evergreen Rotary Park. Each Thursday from May to October we offer a market bustling with great vendors, music, educational opportunities, kids’ activities, and more. http://bremertonmarket.wordpress.com

Join WSU Master Gardeners for five consecutive Wednesdays at Blueberry Park Children’s Garden to learn about bugs, composting and veggies and create cool take-home crafts! One or more adults must accompany each group of children. Activities are designed for elementary aged children. For more information contact harri.stone@wsu.edu.

WAZYGOOSE KITSAP 2019
Labor Day Weekend-August 31, Sept 1
The first known Wazygoose, thrown in 1681, was a boozey summer feast hosted by a Letterpress Printer for his Print Shop employees. The printing community embraced this annual tradition, often sharing a harvest goose...hence the name, Wazygoose. Today, the Wazygoose has been reimagined as a public arts festival. At Wazygoose Kitsap, 24 plus local artists will print hand-carved linoleum blocks with 2 full size steamrollers! The best part of watching is the reveal of the print after the steamroller drives over it. There will be arts booths, food, and music.

The best part of watching is the reveal of the print after the steamroller drives over it. There will be arts booths, food, and music.

WAYZGOOSE KITSAP 2019
Labor Day Weekend-August 31, Sept 1
The first known Wazygoose, thrown in 1681, was a boozey summer feast hosted by a Letterpress Printer for his Print Shop employees. The printing community embraced this annual tradition, often sharing a harvest goose...hence the name, Wazygoose. Today, the Wazygoose has been reimagined as a public arts festival. At Wazygoose Kitsap, 24 plus local artists will print hand-carved linoleum blocks with 2 full size steamrollers! The best part of watching is the reveal of the print after the steamroller drives over it. There will be arts booths, food, and music.
