Serious Injury, Hit and Run Collision

BPD Case # B19-005933

The Bremerton Police Department is investigating a serious injury, hit and run collision and needs the public's assistance. In the early morning hours of Friday, August 30, 2019, a vehicle traveling eastbound on 5th Street, between Naval Avenue and Veneta Avenue, struck a 24-year-old male pedestrian. After the collision, the suspect vehicle continued eastbound at a high rate of speed. The victim was momentarily unable to get up but eventually walked to his residence. Medics were called and transported the victim to the hospital. The victim is expected to survive but sustained serious injuries.

Investigators have secured surveillance video of the incident but continue their search for more digital evidence. The collision occurred at 0203 hours. Investigators believe the suspect vehicle is a passenger car. Moments prior to the collision, an SUV traveled the same direction as the suspect vehicle. Investigators want to speak to the driver of the SUV about their observations and possible knowledge of the suspect vehicle and driver.

If you have any information about this incident, you are asked to call the Bremerton Police Department. Anonymous tips are also welcome. Investigators also encourage those who have surveillance cameras facing the street in this area, as well as surrounding areas, to contact them. If you were involved in this collision, please make arrangements to come and speak with investigators.

If you have any information about this incident please call our traffic investigators, Officer Sara Felty (360.473.5972) or Officer Steven Forbragd (360.473.5495).
