Rape in the 2nd Degree and Indecent Liberties (B20-003895)

On Wednesday, August 12, 2020, 39-year-old Bremerton resident Joshua N. Jenkins was taken into custody by Bremerton Detectives for Rape in the 2nd Degree and Indecent Liberties.

An extensive investigation has led to evidence indicating that during Jenkins' 9-year career as a massage therapist; he has had sexual contact with over 20 women and inappropriately touched many more.

Jenkins began his career in June of 2011, at Action Chiropractic located in Port Orchard, WA. Jenkins was terminated due to several complaints of his inappropriate behavior with clients. From there, Jenkins moved to All About U Health and Wellness where he practiced in both the Tacoma and Gig Harbor offices until 2018. From November of 2018, to the present, Jenkins has been working at Dahlia Skin Boutique, located in Bremerton WA. Jenkins also started working at Manette Day Spa in Bremerton, WA, in late 2019.

In 2016, Jenkins was investigated by Port Orchard Police Department for a suspicious incident surrounding inappropriate touching of his clients. He was again investigated in 2017, by Tacoma Police Department for Indecent Liberties. Those cases were not prosecuted.

Jenkins has no criminal history.

Jenkins was booked into Kitsap County jail with a $250,000 bail.

The Bremerton Police Department believes it is possible Jenkins has victimized more women and asks anyone who has been victimized to contact Det. Munjekovich of the Bremerton Police Department. Contact can be made at (360) 473-5485 or 5361. The associated case number is B20-003895.
