Special operations Group Arrests Four and Seizes over $10,000 in Cash in Poulsbo and Bremerton

The Special Operations group (SOG), a multi-agency team which includes members from the 'Bremerton and Poulsbo Police Departments, executed two search warrants related to an investigation of sales of methamphetamine. The warrants resulted in several arrests and the seizure of evidence and cash. The subjects of the investigation came to light when a BPD patrol officer arrested a subject that was in possession of ¼ pounds of methamphetamine and $5,200 in cash.

Late last night, following ongoing investigation and surveillance of two addresses, detectives served a search warrant at a residence in the 18000 block of Clear Creek Road in Poulsbo. Methamphetamine and cash were recovered (photo attached). In relation to that warrant, a badge and credentials for a military police officer based at JBLM were recovered. The badge and credentials appear to have been stolen. Later, a warrant was also served at a residence in the 1500 block of Warren avenue in Bremerton.

Detectives recovered $4733.00 in cash from the Poulsbo residence. Officer Roessel and his K-9 partner Dusty were also involved in the search of the two residences.

Four subjects were booked into the Kitsap County jail on charges including Delivery of a Controlled Substance- methamphetamine; Possession of a Controlled Substance with intent to deliver- Methamphetamine; and one subject had a Felony Arrest Warrant for Escape from Community Custody from the Washington State department of Corrections.

“This case and the evidence seized reflects the joint law enforcement efforts between all of our agencies in Kitsap County,” said Bremerton police Chief Steve Strachan, adding, “No matter where these offenders go, our departments will put them in jail, get the drugs off the street, and seize their cash for forfeiture.”
