SUMS CORNER
Welcome back to all those that went on the Mackinac Island trip. I have talked to a few of the travelers and they all said that they had a wonderful time. The next big trip is to Tuscany and the Italian Riviera. Boy, wouldn’t it be great if we could all go and enjoy that pizza and wine or maybe a bit of the good ol’ Italian spaghetti. Well maybe someday...Traveling has always been one of my great joys and I am so happy when others are able to make these trips and come home with all the beautiful pictures and stories of the fun times they experienced.

The first day of fall has come and gone. So many of the trees and shrubs are turning vibrant oranges, reds and mixed fall colors already. Almost time to get the rakes out to begin the yearly raking of the fallen leaves and the loppers to trim the bushes and shrubs.

SUMS had the 1st annual Fall Fest on September 9th and it was a huge success. The food was great and the talent was phenomenal. Thanks to all the Assisted Living facilities that donated food and time and a big thanks for all those who helped clean up. I know that I have said it before, but I am going to say it again...without all the help our luncheons wouldn’t be the success that they are.

The Senior Craft Fair is just around the corner. Dates are October 17th & 18th. Ovens are fired up making all those tasty baked goods to sell at the Sweet Shoppe. Gail Dupee is doing a wonderful job wrapping all the baskets filled with donations from the different groups at the Center and Volunteer greeters and helpers are lined up to make this the best fair ever! Tickets for the baskets are on sale now! We have a couple fun luncheons coming up, the Boo Party in October and the Holiday Party in December. Be sure to get your tickets early and join in on these festivities—both always sell out.

If any of you are ever interested in the financial status of SUMS, you may get this information from the SUMS bulletin board in the main room. Our next SUMS meeting is October 14th at 11:30AM for any of you that wish to join in on these festivities—both always sell out.
