SUMS CORNER
I would like to start with a big welcome to the Bremerton Senior Center to everyone! So far, it has been a great year for us, we are hoping it has for you too!

Our SUMS President has some info to share with us: This has been a fairly active time for SUMS since the last newsletter as we’ve had our annual “Spring Fling” event. A big “THANK YOU” to our Sunshine Singers and CenterLine Dancers for their performances. SUMS profit for this event was $90. The Spring Bake Sale was also held in June and not only do we want to thank the bakers of breads and cookies, the volunteers who bagged & tagged, those that staffed the table but also to the buyers. Because of the buyers, we profited $585! AWESOME!!

Now, onto our next project - the Senior Craft Fair! This is a huge event that keeps us all very busy for the next few months. Mark your calendars for October 14-15 at Sheridan Park Community Center. We are in need of volunteers for the following: greeters table, sweet shoppe sellers and bakers and the auction basket coordinator. Thanks to Gail Dupee for coordinating the baskets over the past few years - we will miss you! Please contact a SUMS officer or Holly and let us know where your time and talents could be utilized and we’ll get you taken care of. Thanks in advance for your willingness to volunteer!!

As of May, Al let us know that the SUMS treasury available was $7181.65. We’d love to hear your thoughts on how to spend this money. Enjoy the upcoming events and see you all at the Craft Fair - Paul.

A special thanks to Tomoko Frank for stepping in and taking over the Monday Line Dance class. Tomoko not only teaches the Wednesday class here at the senior center but is a very busy person!

I know Paul mentioned the Senior Center Craft Fair held on Oct 14 & 15, 2016, but I also wanted to let you know that we’ve got great entertainment already lined up.

Thanks everyone - George Cho - VP SUMS

CORNER

I would like to start with a big welcome to the Bremerton Senior Center to everyone! So far, it has been a great year for us, we are hoping it has for you too!

Our $UMS President has some info to share with us: This has been a fairly active time for $UMS since the last newsletter as we’ve had our annual “Spring Fling” event. A big “THANK YOU” to our Sunshine Singers and CenterLine Dancers for their performances. $UM's profit for this event was $590. The Spring Bake Sale was also held in June and not only do we want to thank the bakers of breads and cookies, the volunteers who bagged & tagged, those that staffed the table but also to the buyers. Because of the buyers, we profited $585! AWESOME!!

Now, onto our next project - the Senior Craft Fair! This is a huge event that keeps us all very busy for the next few months. Mark your calendars for October 14-15 at Sheridan Park Community Center. We are in need of volunteers for the following: greeters table, sweet shoppe sellers and bakers and the auction basket coordinator. Thanks to Gail Dupee for coordinating the baskets over the past few years - we will miss you! Please contact a $UMS officer or Holly and let us know where your time and talents could be utilized and we’ll get you taken care of. Thanks in advance for your willingness to volunteer!!

As of May, Al let us know that the $UMS treasury available was $7181.65. We’d love to hear your thoughts on how to spend this money. Enjoy the upcoming events and see you all at the Craft Fair - Paul

A special thanks to Tomoko Frank for stepping in and taking over the Monday Line Dance class. Tomoko not only teaches the Wednesday class here at the senior center but is a very busy person!

I know Paul mentioned the Senior Center Craft Fair held on Oct 14 & 15, 2016, but I also wanted to let you know that we’ve got great entertainment already lined up.

Thanks everyone - George Cho - VP $UMS
