SUMS Corner

Hello SUMS members! It has been a hot summer so far. I am looking forward to Fall. Let's bring you up to date with the latest information. Our Spring cookie sale was a success. We made $406 from sales. Once again thank you for both buyers and makers of those delicious morsels. In July we used SUMS funds to buy a new washer/dryer for the center. We also put in new flooring in the laundry room and purchased a storage cabinet for that room. When you walk by take a look!

We have also started preparing for our October Senior Craft Fair - October 19th and 20th. Advertisement is booked and vendor notifications are sent out. September will be busy. Expect calls from Pat and Cathy to staff up our greeter and cookie tables. Holly will be putting up a "setup/year down" sign-up sheet. Judy Ray has once again stepped up to volunteer putting the baskets together. She has already completed three baskets and they are beautiful! (Special thanks to the bow maker - Lois Ireland!) For all the Senior Center groups, now is the time to start thinking of what theme you want for your raffle baskets. Those baskets have brought in more than $1000 each year so once again we want to thank you in advance. Bob has volunteered once again to be our "Stage Manager/"

We need volunteers to make this a continued success. If you have never volunteered before, please talk to the staff or any officer to get information on how you can help. George Cho is working on some fabulous entertainment for this week. He will need additional volunteers to assist there so please help. That's it for now. Remember, volunteers make all of SUMS activities a success.

Have a great Fall Y'all
Paul Vlastelica, $ums President

THURSDAY, MARCH 28TH - COST, $159, R1
Andrew Lloyd Webber’s beloved, whimsical masterpiece Cats is coming to the Paramount Theatre. This Cats musical Seattle production is your chance to join the fun at the Jellicle Ball, as an assortment of anthropomorphic cats — inspired by T.S. Eliot’s poetry book Old Possum’s Book of Practical Cats — compete for the “Jellicle Choice,” which will send one of them to the mysterious, regenerative “Heaviside Layer.” Any more description would hardly do the show justice; suffice it to say that it’s one of the best-loved musicals on either side of the Atlantic. Tickets to the performance, round-trip transportation, escorts and a delicious meal at Ruth’s Chris Steakhouse is all included on this fabulous trip! (Business Casual dress is required for dinner) We will be parking at the theatre and walking to the restaurant which is located inside the Grand Hyatt Hotel in Seattle and due to the ferry schedule, we will be driving instead of taking the ferry. $UMS$ CORNER
Hello $UMS$ members! It has been a hot summer so far. I am looking forward to Fall. Let's bring you up to date with the latest information. Our Spring cookie sale was a success. We made $406 from sales. Once again thank you for both buyers and makers of those delicious morsels. In July we used $UMS$ funds to buy a new washer/dryer for the center. We also put in new flooring in the laundry room and purchased a storage cabinet for that room. When you walk by take a look!

We have also started preparing for our October Senior Craft Fair - October 19th and 20th. Advertisement is booked and vendor notifications are sent out. September will be busy. Expect calls from Pat and Cathy to staff up our greeter and cookie tables. Holly will be putting up a "setup/year down" sign-up sheet. Judy Ray has once again stepped up to volunteer putting the baskets together. She has already completed three baskets and they are beautiful! (Special thanks to the bow maker - Lois Ireland!) For all the Senior Center groups, now is the time to start thinking of what theme you want for your raffle baskets. Those baskets have brought in more than $1000 each year so once again we want to thank you in advance. Bob has volunteered once again to be our "Stage Manager"!

We need volunteers to make this a continued success. If you have never volunteered before, please talk to the staff or any officer to get information on how you can help. George Cho is working on some fabulous entertainment for this year. We will know shortly if we will be staffing the kitchen area. If so, we will need additional volunteers to assist there so please help. That's it for now. Remember, volunteers make all of $UMS$ activities a success. Have a great Fall Y'all
